- Are you responsible for disaster preparedness at your site?
- Do you have the responsibility for purchasing disaster supplies?
- Is your Disaster Plan still based on 1991 concepts?

Let us give you the latest information and training along with our workbook to take your sites preparedness to the next level. Don't allow your staff to be assigned to teams one more day without our lifesaving training. Everyone's safety depends on it. Give your staff the skills and the confidence to carry out the plan.

If you're a school administrator, your disaster plan may be outdated. It's critical that your disaster preparedness coordinator learn the best practices and strategies from Evacuation and Search & Rescue to Disaster First Aid.

We guarantee you will learn more in our one-day trainings than any other Disaster Preparedness Workshops.
